Irfona attended the Binghamton Ball on several occasions. She also traveled to the Silver Bay Dance Weekend held by the Dance Flurry at Lake George in the Adirondacks. She was a glorious and elegant dancer. She encouraged newcomers to the English dance tradition, and she helped them learn old and new English dances. She helped dancers appreciate the relationship between the figures in the dance and the music written for the dance. It was my pleasure to know her. It is my pleasure to write this waltz for her. Her contributions to English dance are many. And, she is missed
